STAT

SUBJECT: Integrity in Post Employment Act of 1989

1. Attached for your attention is H.R. 2143, another proposed ethics bill designed to prohibit Members of Congress and former government employees from attempting to influence the USG or from representing foreign entities for a set period after leaving government service. This bill was introduced on April 27, 1989.

2. As with the other ethics bills we have submitted to you for review, we would appreciate any comments you have on this pending legislation. Thank you for your attention to this matter.
